John Graham, CEO of CPP Investments, Joins FCLTGlobal Board of Directors

Boston, MA, 8 July 2021 – FCLTGlobal, a non-profit organization working to rebalance capital markets to support a long-term, sustainable economy, announced today that John Graham, President & CEO, CPP Investments, has joined its board of directors. CPP Investments, a global investment management organization that manages the Fund in the best interests of more than 20 million contributors and beneficiaries of the Canada Pension Plan, is a founding member of FCLTGlobal, having co-founded the original Focusing Capital on the Long Term initiative in 2013.

Graham was appointed President & CEO in February 2021 and is responsible for leading CPP Investments and its investment activities. Graham joined CPP Investments in 2008 and has had a successful track record of building and leading global investment businesses. In 2018, he was appointed as Senior Managing Director & Global Head of Credit Investments, where he was responsible for leading credit investments globally.

“I am honoured to join the Board of FCLTGlobal and look forward to working with management and other board members to help fulfil FCLTGlobal’s mission to build a long-term sustainable global economy,” said John Graham, President & CEO, CPP Investments.

FCLTGlobal’s board directors hold leadership roles within its member organizations. Members participate in action-oriented programming, fund ongoing operations, and actively contribute to current research initiatives that promote long-term oriented strategies for companies and investors worldwide.

“FCLTGlobal and CPP Investments have longstanding ties going back to the founding of our organization. The leadership team and staff at CPP Investments have been integral in the creation and implementation of our research from the start. We’re excited to welcome John into the fold and continue our work together,” said Sarah Keohane Williamson, FCLTGlobal’s CEO and a member of the board, ex-officio.
